

Parent Involvement Policy

Ann Brock Elementary School is committed to the education of the children in our community. We feel parent involvement is an essential piece in ensuring that our students are successful in school. We believe that when parents are more involved in the academic process, school becomes more of a priority for their children.

Title I regulations require that each school served under Title I jointly develop with and distribute to parents of participating children, a written parental involvement policy agreed on by the parents that describes the requirements outlined in Title I law.

A. POLICY INVOLVEMENT

- 1. Convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under this part and to explain the requirements of this part, and the right of the parents to be involved;

Our school holds an official State of the School Address each school year to review with parents Title I School requirements and the school's Parent Involvement Policy. In addition, the principal gives parents an update on school test data and facilitate a review of the school's improvement plan.

Activities-

In August of the current school year, parents are invited to a parent information night to communicate the participation of Ann Brock Elementary in Title 1, Part A. The Title 1 information is sent home in both English/Spanish.

Campus Education Improvement Committee meets in May each year to review and update the Parent Involvement Policy for the upcoming year.

Parent Involvement Policy sent home in English/Spanish in the Fall Semester of the school year. A parent signature is required for receipt of Parent Involvement Policy.

- 2. Offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide, with funds provided under this part, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parental involvement;

Activities-

Parents are invited to participate in a variety of meetings and activities over the course of the school year.

Parents will be invited to participate in a formal parent- teacher conference at least once a year (from October -January) to discuss their child's progress. Teachers may receive parents in the morning, during the school day and/or afterschool to accommodate as many reciprocating parents as possible.

An Open House will be held in March to provide parents the opportunity to formally visit their child's classroom to become better informed about grade level expectation and their student's academic progress.

Through the work of the guidance counselor, parent training, resources and technology will be made available to help parents become an invaluable part of their child's education. A weekly parent newsletter is sent home from the guidance counselor with information that is child-centered, developmental, and preventive services that promote students' academic, social/emotional, and college/career readiness, at each stage of their development. Due to the hectic and varying schedules of our school family, information and resources are available in person, through a parent communication system and via links on our school website making information accessible twenty four hours a day.

3. Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy;

Activities-

Ann Brock's Campus Education Improvement Committee meets six times per year to plan, review and improve programs at Ann Brock Elementary.

An organized PTO has been established in our school to create a forum for parental input and involvement in monthly meetings.

4. Provide parents of participating children timely information about programs under this part; descriptions and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet; and if requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any suggestions as soon as practically possible.

Activities-

Our school communicates with parents often the state's curricular and assessment expectations, school wide requirements in relation to the delivery of instruction, the techniques utilized to evaluate student work, and individual classroom rituals and routines pertinent to the academic success of our students.

We use a variety of communicative techniques such as our Family Access, School Handbook, Classroom Newsletters, School Newsletters, School Website, Classroom Websites, Communication Folders, Weekly Parent Link (phone call system), At a minimum 1 formal Parent/Teacher Conference, 504 Meetings, ARD Meetings, Monthly PTO meetings, individual notes/calls home, Provide Weekly "Ready Rosie" video modeling & mobile technology to build partnerships between families & educators to promote school readiness, Family Fun Nights, Surveys (paper and phone), Biannual Literacy Parent workshops, Annual Math Night, Annual Open House, Annual Back to School Night, Three week progress reports, Report Cards, benchmark results, fluency scores, STAAR data to solicit parent participation and deliver important information in hopes of creating productive dialogue between home and school concerning improved student achievement.

B. SHARED RESPONSIBILITIES FOR HIGH STUDENT ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

As a component of the school-level parental involvement policy, each school shall jointly develop with parents for all children served under this part a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement.

Activities

Student-Teacher-Parent Compact sent home in August of the current school year. A signature is required as an agreement to the compact by all stakeholders.

The education of a student is not only the responsibility of the teacher, but also of the parent and the child. For this reason, a Parent-Teacher---Student Compact has been developed and is utilized in our school. This document serves as an agreement between all parties that they will adhere to certain duties and responsibilities to ensure the success of the student. It is reviewed and signed by all at the beginning of each school year. The signed compacts is kept by the teacher and used in student and parent conferences to remind each participant of their responsibilities. These compacts are also used to motivate students and parents to become more involved in the educational process and to let parents know that they are equal partners in their child's learning.

C. BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, each school and local educational agency assisted under this part

1. Shall provide assistance to the parents of children served by the school or local educational agency, as appropriate, in understanding such topics as the state's academic content standards and state student academic achievement standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of this part, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children;

Our school will provide for this provision as stated in the Policy Involvement and Shared Responsibilities for High Student Achievement sections of this document.

2. Shall provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement, such as literacy training and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement;

Our school will provide for this provision as stated in the Policy Involvement and Shared Responsibilities for High Student Achievement sections of this document.

3. Shall educate teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school;

Faculty and staff members will be cognizant of educational research on parent involvement. Parental input will be solicited throughout the year in meetings, through surveys and during one-on-one conferences. Information derived will be utilized by the school to strengthen the tie between school and home for the purpose of increasing student achievement. The school's administrative team and Campus Education Improvement Committee will take the lead in providing a multitude of opportunities for parents to become involved in our school over the course of the year in order to take full advantage of the benefits that come with active parent involvement.

4. Shall, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent involvement programs and activities with community based early learning programs and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children;

Our school population includes AM and PM Pre-K classes. A school's Pre- K teacher works to ensure that this early learning program is appropriate for our students. It is also the teachers role to take the lead in bridging a strong relationship between home and school. The school's administrative staff, PreK teaching staff and the guidance counselor, will recommend resources and references for parents of preschool students. Field Trips and on campus activities are plentiful throughout the year and parents are encouraged to attend these events as often as possible.

5. Shall ensure that information related to school and parent programs, meetings and other activities is sent to the parents of participating children in a format and, to extent practicable, in a language parents can understand.

Due to the volume of paper that is sent home each year from school to home, written information is purposefully is as compact and concise as possible. Ann Brock Elementary has made it a practice to send home school correspondences in English and Spanish, through the ParentLink System, to ensure all information related to our school is understandable. A parent liaison is available to assist our school with oral communication when necessary.

D. In carrying out the parental involvement requirements of this part, districts and schools, to the extent practicable, shall provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with children with limited English proficiency, parents with children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand.

Parents of all students, regardless of English proficiency, mobility or disability, are considered to be an important part of our learning community. All parents are afforded the opportunity to be involved in their child's school environment. For this reason, if a special need is identified that would help a parent to more fully understand the educational process and the academic progress of his/her child, assistance will be provided to that parent. This type support often comes in the form of interpreted school documents in a parent's primary language, having an interpreter on hand to translate important information at school wide meetings and events, working with an interpreter to provide translation in parent/teacher conferences, making available parent resource in our center that are in English and Spanish, participating in faculty and staff training to better understand the culture of the students served, providing easier accessibility to parents and/or students with disabilities, etc.

This School Parental Involvement Policy has been developed jointly with and agreed on with, parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs, as evidenced by the Campus Education Improvement Committee. This policy was adopted by Ann Brock Elementary on May 5, 2021, for the 2021-2022 school year. The school will distribute this policy to all parents of participating Title I, Part A children on or before September 30, 2021. At the request of the parents on the Campus Education Improvement Committee, a one-page overview of the Parent Involvement Policy was created and sent to parents.
